CATHOLIC CHARITIES BOSTON'S
HOPE FOR THE HOLIDAYS

GIVING TREE KIT

Gather your community. Grow hope.

Host a Giving Tree for Catholic Charities Boston's Hope for the Holidays campaign.

Each tag provides hope through fresh groceries, one-time rent and utility help, and essential needs for local children, families, and seniors.

HOW IT WORKS

1) Get your kit

- Download a printable kit or
- Request a physical kit with signage, flyers, and hang-tags by emailing giving@ccab.org.
- Each tag represents support for a local family and includes a QR code that links directly to a secure donation page.

2) Set up your tree (or bulletin board or display table)

- Place the tree or hang the tags in a visible spot (lobby, break room, conference room, or classroom).
- Display the poster that explains how to give.

3) Invite people to give

- Share the flyer/post in your bulletin or newsletter.

4) Boost participation

- We'll send messaging and graphics you can post.
- Snap a photo of your tree (with permission) and share it with us at @charitiesboston so we can celebrate together.

5) Wrap-up by December 31st

- The campaign runs through December 31. We'll send a brief recap you can share with your community!

Bulletin or Announcement

Catholic Charities Boston — Holiday Giving Tree

This Advent/Christmas season, our parish is hosting a Giving Tree for Catholic Charities Boston (CCAB). It's simple—and powerful. Each donation represents support for a local family.

How it works

- Pick a tag from the tree (or display table) after Mass.
- Scan the QR code on the tag
- Make a secure online gift.

Your impact

Every gift helps provide emergency food assistance to address hunger, prevent homelessness, and provide essential basic needs.

Dates

Please participate by December 31. We'll share progress updates throughout the season.

Questions / Need help?

- Contact [Contact Name] at [phone/email].
- To host your own Giving Tree, email giving@ccab.org.

Thank you for helping us gather our community and grow hope this Christmas!
